

January 2011

A referee can decide who can and how many players can participate in a drop ball?

A: True                      B: False

Answer: B

A goalie can participate in a drop ball at any location on the field?

A: True                      B: False

Answer: A

During play the game is stopped because of threatening weather. When the weather clears the restart is:

A) Drop ball                      B) Kick off                      C) Free kick for the team who had the ball last

Answer: A

During a drop ball, an attacking player in the offside position receives the ball directly from his teammate who kicked the drop ball. The restart is:

A) Indirect free kick    B) Drop Ball                      C) Allow play to resume, no restart

Answer: A

At a drop ball the ball is kicked directly into an opponents goal. The restart is:

A) Drop ball                      B) Corner kick                      C) Goal Kick                      D) Kick off

Answer: D

During a drop ball a player on Team A kicks the ball prior to the ball hitting the ground, the restart is:

A) Indirect free kick                      B) Direct free kick                      C) Drop ball

Answer: C