

May 2011

You should give water breaks:

- A) At any time for the safety and welfare of the players and the referee team without conference or agreement of the coaches.
- B) If requested by either coach prior to the match (determined during pre-match conference)
- C) Either A or B

Answer: C

During water breaks the clock:

- A) Stops
- B) Continues to run

Answer: B) Continues to run

Safety and welfare of players and the referee team is your first priority at all times on the “pitch”

- A) True
- B) False

Answer: A) True

No metal hair clips are allowed in the hair as well as no ear rings, no ear/nose/cheek studs, and no lip/knee rings. This includes no Band-Aids covering them. This includes players as well as referees.

- A) True
- B) False

Answer: A) True